Events & Functions

Capturing the excitement, glamour and colour of your corporate event, gala dinner or awards ceremony not only gives your client an enduring reminder of your professionalism and skill, it adds extra depth to your service offering. It also provides that professional touch to your portfolio.

Michael Uganecz Photography has the experience and vision to bring your events to life with still images. My experience with people photography, as well as commercial and landscape photography, will give you professional and artistic results.

Don't hesitate to contact me to discuss a brief for your next project or event.
